

FILE > MAKE A COPY > CLOSE THIS WINDOW

Resilience in The Scorpio Races

Sean/Puck shows resilience in chapter 35/36 by (FIRST CHARACTERISTIC), (SECOND CHARACTERISTIC), and (THIRD CHARACTERISTIC). The first way Sean/Puck shows resilience is when he/she (FIRST CHARACTERISTIC EXPLAINED) For example, on page Sean/Puck (TEXT EVIDENCE FOR FIRST CHARACTERISTIC PRESENTED HERE)... The second way Sean shows resilience is by... This is shown on page... when Sean... Finally, Sean shows resilience when he... An example of this is found on page... when Sean... (CLOSING SENTENCE) In these ways, Sean is a resilient character.

Writing Tips

- Additional thesis sentence starters:
 - In the novel, The Scorpio Races, Sean/Puck shows his/her resilience by...
 - Sean/Puck shows his/her resilience in the face of adversity by...
 - Sean/Puck is resilient in chapter 35/36 as he/she...
- Use transition words such as those highlighted above in aqua.

First,	In addition,
Next,	Also,
Second,	Finally,
Then...	A second...
Another...	An additional...
Additionally,	Lastly,

- Fill in your ideas where I have (ALL CAPS CUES).
- Make sure you introduce your text evidence after your explanation of each characteristic of resilience. Sentence starters for introducing text evidence are listed below
 - Evidence of this is found on page ... when Sean/Puck says, "..."
 - An example of this is on page ... when Sean/Puck...

- This is seen on page when Sean/Puck...
- Proof of this is found on page ... where Sean/Puck...

- Additional closing sentence ideas:

- By using his/her qualities of resilience, Sean/Puck shows his/her ability to bounce back.
- Because of his/her ability to ..., ..., and ..., Sean/Puck is a resilient character.
- Sean/Puck shows his/her resilience by ..., ..., and ...